

Endemic Catamaran

Endemic Catamaran 4 Days Itinerary D

Day	Activities
1	Bartholomew Island: Upon your arrival to Baltra Airport, you will be transferred to Endemic Catamaran. During the afternoon, after lunch, head to Bartholomew Island, where you will ascend to admire the spectacular panorama of the entire island and the famous Pinnacle Rock. The beaches at this island are excellent for snorkeling. End of the day and dinner onboard.
2	Cormorant Point and Post Office Bay: In the morning, after breakfast, you will head to Devil's Crown, that is an underwater volcanic crater, almost covered completely by Galapagos waters, and from above it gives the image of a crown. It's an excellent spot for snorkeling. After this, you will head to Cormorant Point and visit an olivine sand beach. During the afternoon you will visit Baroness Lookout, from where you will have an amazing view of Floreana Island, and by the end of the day you will head to Post Office Bay, that keeps the legendary post barrel in which whalers used to post their mail in two centuries ago, and where tourists can do nowadays too.
3	Chinese Hat: First activity of the day will be taking a Dinghy Ride to Chinese Hat, a small islet off the south coast of Santiago, with the particular form of a Hat, hence its name. This place is a great location to view many geological formations such as lava tubes and lava flows you can also spot colonies of sea lions and marine iguanas here. Then you will head to North Seymour Island, contains the largest colony of magnificent frigate birds in the Galapagos. There is also a large population of blue-footed boobies that perform an amusing courtship dance when nesting conditions are right.
4	Black Turtle Cove: After breakfast, you will visit Black Turtle Cove, located on the north shore of Santa Cruz, it is a living illustration of how mangroves alter the marine environment to create a rich and unique habitat You will take a dinghy ride to observe the amazing marine life that inhabits there, like eagle rays, mustard rays and white tipped reed sharks. After this activity you will be transferred from the boat to Baltra airport to take your flight back to the continent.
