Day 1

Espinoza Point and Urbina Bay: The day begins when you disembark at Espinoza Point, a site rich in wildlife, such as sea lions, penguins, crabs, herons and more, living in the native mangrove forest. In the afternoon, navigate to Urbina Bay, one of the recent examples of geological uplift in the Galapagos, where seasonally tortoises nest, and you can see Galapagos Penguins, flightless cormorants and brown pelicans. End of the day and dinner.

Elizabeth Bay and Moreno Gf`ek (Isabela @ðe[ž Early in the morning we visit Elizabeth Bay, the only place where old tropical mangrove forest grows, and penguins inhabit them. In the afternoon, visit Moreno Point on the north coast of Isabela, between volcanoes Sierra Negra and Cerro Azul. Walk a trail of solidified lava until a coastal lagoon where you may see several species of birds. End of the day and dinner.

7

Floreana Highlands & Loberia: After breakfast, we land at Puerto Velasco Ibarra for a ride to the highlands of Floreana. First stop is to climb Cerro Alieri, where you will see lichens and epiphytes. Then, we head to Asilo de la Paz, to learn the fascinating story of the first settlers: the Witmers, Doctor Ritter and Dora, and the famous Baroness and her three lovers. In the late afternoon, we visit a Loberia (sea lion rockery) with time to swim or snorkel on the beach.

8

Twin Craters ŽSanta Cruz @ðe[ž1 Early in the morning, you will land at Puerto Ayora and go for a visit to Twin Craters (Los Gemelos) in the Highlands of Santa Cruz, two collapsed craters that are home to various species of birds. Then, you will visit private estate "El Chato II" at Santa Cruz Highlands for one of the best possibilities to see the giant tortoises of Santa Cruz Island in their natural habitat.

Samba Yacht Itinerary 15 Days

Day	Activities
9	Cormorant Point & Post Office Bay (Floreana Island): First activity of the day will be heading to Punta Cormorant, home to greater flamingos and sea turtles. You may also see stingrays and reef sharks from the shore. Next take a dingy ride and snorkel at Champion Islet, where endemic mocking birds reside. During snorkeling you may see fish, rays, sharks and Galapagos sea lions. In the late afternoon, the yacht will take you to Post Office Bay, where pirates, whalers and scientific expeditioners used to send letters back home. Finally we head to Baroness lookout. End of the day and dinner onboard.
10	Suarez Point and Gardner Bay (Española Island): Early in the morning head to Suarez Point, a basaltic cliff which forms a blowhole where water sprays high into the air, and where you can also watch sea lions, nesting sea birds (boobies and albatross) and Marine Iguanas. After lunch, we visit Gardner Bay, an important breeding site for pacific green turtles. But the main attraction is the Galapagos sea lion colony lazing on the white sand beach, along with marine iguanas, and Galapagos Hawks. You may also be able to snorkel at nearby Gardner and Osborn Islets. After this activity, return to the yacht for dinner.
11	Lobos Islet, Kicker Rock & Pitt Point (San Cristobal): First activity in the morning will be a visit to Pitt Point, offering an impressive view after climbing up a steep narrow path onto a plateau surrounded by reddish hills. After this visit, we head to Kicker Rock (León Dormido), to take a dinghy ride observing the narrow channel and the marine species that nest there. In the afternoon we head to Lobos Islet, where a colony of Galapagos sea lions live, in particular nurturing mothers with their babies. You may also spot male blue footed boobies and great frigate birds.
12	Santa Fe & South Plazas: Early in the morning we land at Barrington Bay on Santa Fe Island, where a small forest of gigantic prickly pear cactus grows and keeps the bay sheltered. This place is home to an endemic species called Barrington Terrestrial Iguana. You may also practice snorkeling here. During the afternoon we head to South Plazas, to see various species of land iguana, and swallow-tailed gulls. If weather permits, we may swim or snorkel here too.
