Solaris Yacht Itinerary 8 Days B

Day	Activities
1	Baltra and Mosquera Islet: Upon your arrival to Baltra Airport you will be transferred by a dinghy ride to Solaris Yacht, after settling in the yacht and lunch, you will make your first visit to Mosquera islet, located between Baltra and North Seymour, this small islet is formed by a geological uplift with a reef of rocks and coral and a great sand beach, where you can spot a great colony of sea lions and sally light-foot crabs. After this visit you will head back to the yacht for dinner and rest.
2	Darwin Bay and Prince Phillip Steps: Early in the morning, after breakfast you will visit Darwin Bay, a collapsed crater that is now below sea level, and has a white coral sandy beach, where you can spot red-footed boobies, lava gulls, and lava herons. You will take a trail to this place's edge and spot more species in the mangrove area, like sharp beaked finches, Galapagos doves and swallow-tailed gulls. In the afternoon, after lunch, you will visit El Barranco, also known as Prince Phillip Steps, you will climb to a plateau, where a big population of masked boobies reside, along with red-footed boobies, storm petrels and short-eared owls. After this activity head back to the yacht for dinner and rest.
3	Santa Fe and South Plazas: After breakfast you will visit South Plazas, that forms part of two islands known as Islas Plazas, where you will find various outstanding species like hybrid iguanas, the result of crossing a male marine iguana and a land female iguana. This big population resides here due to the presence of tunas, their favorite food. Swallow-tailed gulls can also be seen in the cliffs, along with red-billed tropicbirds and brown pelicans. In the afternoon you will visit Santa Fe, island that was formed from an uplift and is mostly flat. This place is also home of species like Galapagos Hawk, Galapagos snake, and two species of land iguanas. You may also have the opportunity to snorkel with playful sea lions and tropical fishes. After this activity head back to the yacht for dinner and rest.
4	Kicker Rock: Early in the morning you will begin with a visit to Kicker Rock or "Leon Dormido" in Spanish; a rock formation, now split in two, where a large population of blue-footed boobies, Nazca boobies and frigate birds can be seen. You may also be able to snorkel here, with a great opportunity to see eagle rays, sea turtles and Galapagos Shark. After lunch, you will head to Galapagos Park National Park Visitor Center, next to Baquerizo Moreno Port town, where you will learn about the volcanic origin of the islands, the ocean climate, the different species that inhabit here, the human establishment, among other things. After this activity you will head back to the yacht for dinner and rest.
