

Siona Amazon Lodge

Activities (5 days/ 4 nights)

Day	Activities	Meals
1	Cuyabeno Wildlife Reserve: Transfer from Lago Agrio to Cuyabeno Bridge, which is the entrance to Cuyabeno Wildlife Reserve. Trip in motorized canoe down river to the lodge. Box lunch on route. The Naturalist guide will give information about the Reserve, and along the way you may also see several species native to this ecosystem, such as monkeys, toucans, parrots, among others. Arrival to the lodge late afternoon. Evening activities include a night walk in the primary forest to observe amphibians and reptiles, and dinner.	LD at lodge
2	Puerto Bolivar Siona Community: After an early breakfast, depart to Puerto Bolivar Siona Community, where you will learn about their customs, traditions and way of life. You will also be able to participate in the elaboration of "Casave", a local dish prepared from yucca. A visit to the Shaman of the community is also included. After lunch with the members of the community, return to the lodge for an early night navigation looking for caiman alligators. Dinner and rest.	BLD at lodge
3	Laguna Grande: After breakfast, we begin a trek in the primary rainforest, where you will be able to explore the beautiful and complex tropical ecosystem, and see a variety of species of plants, trees and animal life. Lunch back at the lodge. During the early afternoon you will visit Laguna Grande, to enjoy a swim and a beautiful sunset. Dinner and rest.	BLD at lodge
4	Canangueno Lagoon: Late breakfast. Head out on a couple of hours paddle canoe trip down river to Canangueno Lagoon, where you will see native fauna of the Cuyabeno Wildlife Reserve. Hike through the rain forest and box lunch back to the community. Free afternoon and early dinner.	BLD at lodge
5	Lago Agrio: Early wakeup call to go birdwatching (this activity is optional). Head back to the lodge for breakfast. Departure back to Cuyabeno bridge by river and transfer out to Lago Agrio.	B at lodge
