2	Laguna Grande: Early in the morning and after breakfast, begin with a brief trip on a motorized canoe to Laguna Grande, where you will have the opportunity to observe the unique flora that is native to this place, such as the macrolobium, ancient trees that have adapted themselves to the surrounding environment of the flooded forest called Igapo. Once this excursion is completed, head to Terra Firme Forest and begin a trek to discover the rainforest and various species of fauna, like woodpeckers, tanagers, macaws and toucans. Head back to the lodge for lunch, and in the early afternoon, go for a swim in another area of Laguna Grande to enjoy a breathtaking sunset. Dinner and night walk.	BLD at lodge
3	Puerto Bolívar Siona Community: Depending on weather conditions, you could go on an early birdwatching excursion. Return to the lodge for breakfast. Begin with a down river journey to visit the local Shaman who belongs to the Cofan ethnic group and who will explain his vast knowledge of alternative medicine and local plants. After lunch in the community, you will also take part in a healing ceremony hosted by the Shaman. In the early afternoon, head to Puerto Bolivar Siona Community where you will be received by a Siona family and learn about their customs and traditions along with the preparation of Casave Bread, that comes from the Yuca. Head back to Tapir Lodge in the late afternoon and dinner.	BLD at lodge
